

Colin T. Provvidenza

Illustrator/ Designer

ABOUT ME

Creative Illustrator with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Illustration from Columbus College of Art and Design. I bring a passionate approach to creating compelling and interesting artwork that can resonate with a variety of audiences. I see my artwork as a way for clients to express their own individuality and style. I have a strong foundation in 2D, 3D graphics, as well as traditional and digital media. I enjoy working with all mediums and creating new ones and enjoy the challenge of creating designs for apparel, characters, and environments. I look forward to continuing my growth as an artist and the challenges and rewards it brings.
